

New City Bond Election For Sewers Indicated

Supervisors Vote Full-Time Deputy Prosecutor Here

An additional full-time district attorney and legal stenographer clerk for Palm Springs was approved 4 to 1 by the board of supervisors Monday.

In casting the only negative vote Supervisor Roman Warren said: "It is the responsibility of the district attorney to provide services. If he has allowed his department to get out of balance, that's his responsibility and not that of the board of supervisors. I can see no indication that an emergency exists in Palm Springs."

Personnel Director Donald E. Spencer recommended the new positions asked for by a group of Palm Springs property owners, the Palm Springs chief of police, and the district attorney, be allowed.

"Considerable statistics have been offered by the district attorney and authorities of the Palm Springs area," he declared, "to indicate the need for additional help. If a new position of deputy district attorney is to be provided it would appear essential that the office be manned during normal working hours and, in order to properly prepare reports, complaints and briefs, clerical assistance is needed."

Supervisor Warren suggested that the board consider employment of full-time deputies in the district attorney's office. He said he would go along with raising their salaries if they were all on full time. There are now two half-time deputies, one in Indio and one in Blythe. The one in Indio has also had to cover the Palm Springs area.

The other supervisors agreed with Warren and voted unanimously to direct the personnel director to study salaries of deputies in the district attorney's office and make recommendations as to their employment on a full time basis only.

Public Offices and Schools to be Closed Tomorrow

City and county offices, and all schools in the Palm Springs Unified School District will be closed tomorrow in observance of the birth date of Washington.

PUC Engineers to Give Phone Service Reports

Engineers of the California State Public Utilities Commission will make a progress report Thursday of their independent investigation of the services rendered by the California Water and Telephone company.

Melvin Mezek, senior engineer, telephone division of the utility commission, notified Jimmy Cooper, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, of the meeting to be held at the Ranch Club with members and Chambers of Commerce of Palm Springs, Rancho Mirage and Cathedral City at 11 a.m.

The meeting is open to the public.

The afternoon of the same day, the officials will meet with the Chambers of Commerce of Palm Desert, Indio and others interested in the extension of telephone service between those areas and Palm Springs, and involving the Coschella Valley Home and Telegraph Company and the California Water and Telephone Company.

A progress report will be made before members of the Chamber of Commerce in Desert Hot Springs at an unannounced date.

Chest Meeting May Sound Note of Desperation

A meeting which may include words of desperation concerning the success of the Palm Springs Community Chest drive will take place Friday afternoon.

It will call together civic, fraternal and service club leaders, and is scheduled at the home of Dave Margolis, president of the Chest.

Frank Bennett, chairman of the fund campaign, announced that so far only $32,500 of a $50,000 goal has been reached. If the organizations dependent on the Community Chest are to continue respective programs for this year, "the goal must be reached," declared Bennett.

Contributions gained from admissions to the model Desert Braemar apartments on Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz Drive have aided the Chest considerably this year, according to Bennett. The charge of 50 cents is turned over to the Chest intact. Chest workers have been in the admission booth every day. The idea was conceived by Norm Waters, president of Desert Braemar.

PRESS STOPPERS

BULLETIN UP - Heavy rains sent streams in Southern Oregon rising today and a state of emergency was declared at Grants Pass, as families were evacuated from the path of the rising Rogue River. New rain and snow storms struck weather weary Northern California again, isolating Eureka and threatening possible floods in the Guerneville area.

SACRAMENTO UP - Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said today it is "highly doubtful" he will ask the Legislature in March for any increase in state taxes.

DOW-JONES STOCK AVERAGES UP - 30 industrials 476.93 up 0.47; 20 rails 159.17 off 0.11; 15 utilities 65.24, up 0.31, and 65 stocks 169.67, up 0.19. Sales today were about 2,240,000 shares compared with 2,530,000 yesterday.

SACRAMENTO UP - A Chicago executive auditor, William H. Merrifield, 48, was named late yesterday as state auditor general, a new $27,000 a year post in California.

Council Faces Hard Choice in Lost Issue

Overloaded Present Lines Forbid More Later Connections

Presentation to Palm Springs voters of a single bond issue for sewers, replacing the one defeated a week ago, was foreshadowed at the city council's informal luncheon yesterday.

Council, in informal discussions at El Mirador with City Manager Robert W. Peterson and City Engineer Frank Hamerschlag, learned that no new lateral sewerage lines will be allowed to tie in to the present lines and to the plant due to capacity load.

They are expected tonight to study the proposal at length at the special council meeting in the city offices, which starts at 7:45.

COUNCIL ADMITTEDLY faced the choice of submitting the plant-financing issue as a separate item, or of forbidding new connections and requiring the installation of septic tanks on all new construction dwellings.

The rest of the sewer system would be financed by assessment district bonds if the bond issue were formalized.

In other discussion of post-election results, preparation for palm trees and street lights on South Palm Canyon Drive was presented to council by Frank Hamerschlag, Director of Public Works.

HAMERSCHLAG SAID $25,000 could be spent now in laying electric conduit and water-irrigation piping for the proposed improvements so that city and state timing would coordinate.

The state is planning to widen the area under discussion this Summer. Bonds would not be sold for the preparatory work, and interest would not have to be paid by the taxpayers until the actual widening commenced.

Council is expected to discuss both items at the special meeting tonight.

Tot's Arm Torn Off in Washer

BRAWLEY — Three-year-old Mark Chittok's right arm was torn from his shoulder when he attempted to stuff a shirt in his mother's automatic washing machine.

The boy was taken to Pioneer Memorial Hospital Monday where he was reported in fair condition. His arm was caught in the swirling agitator after he opened the machine.

EXCESSIVE SPEED and passing was blamed for this accident in which Henry B. Tuttle, local contractor of 218 South Palm Canyon Drive, barely escaped serious injury, and two sailors were treated at Desert Hospital for cuts and abrasions. Driver of the other automobile was Dennis Guidici, 20, and his companion who suffered an incomplete fracture of the right ankle was Ronald Bernstein, 18. Both are stationed at Long Beach Naval Station. Though Tuttle attempted to swerve out of the line of the oncoming car, the automobiles struck at the side of the road, according to the California Highway Patrol (Desert Sun Photo).

Council Hears Plan for Grading Cafe Cleanliness

City council yesterday recommended the restaurant-grading system, proposed under a plan of the Riverside County Health Department for Palm Springs, be taken to the Mayor's Coordinating Council for discussion, rather than before them at their special meeting tonight.

The meeting tonight, called because state law requires ballots be canvassed a week after casting, will start at 7:45, 15 minutes earlier than usual.

Council heard a presentation of the restaurant-grading system by L. E. Irons, senior sanitarian from Riverside.

Irons explained the system as a grading system based on two factors, cleanliness and operation.

He said the present inspection system under state law requires the same measures of cleanliness as set forth in the proposed system, but that enforcement is sometimes stalemated through lack of personnel.

The present restaurant inspector for the Palm Springs district, John Lucev Jr., said he has had to issue citations to three restaurants here in the past year and a half.

The restaurant-grading system would require, if adopted by city council through an ordinance, that cards be displayed at the entrances bearing a rating of A, B or C.

In that way, Irons said, the public would indirectly police and enforce the cleanliness of the establishments. They would not eat in a place that bears a B or a C rating, and the operators would elevate their standards of cleanliness and operation.

Earl Lair Rites Set Tomorrow

Funeral services for Earl Arthur Lair, 81, Eagle Canyon Trailer Park, Tramview, will be held at 11 a.m., Wednesday, from the Wiefels and Son Chapel, with the Rev. Jack Morrow, pastor of the Four Square Church, in charge. Interment will be in Palm Springs cemetery.

Lair died at 9:30 p.m., Saturday, at his home, following a sudden illness.

A native of Hanover, Michigan, he had been a resident of this area for 18 months. He was retired, having been an employee of the Department of Street Railways for the City of Detroit.

DRY LAKE HUMOR

And that reminds us of the Parumth farmer who took a load of hay to Las Vegas and sold it for a good price. Thought he: "I'll surprise my wife." He bought a suit of clothes, a hat, new underwear and a pair of shoes. He placed them in the back of the wagon and started home. Nearly there he stopped by a dry lake, took off his old clothes and threw them in the lake. They sank immediately. When he went around to the back of the wagon, his new clothes were gone. He hesitated for a minute, then got in the wagon and said: Giddap, Maud—we'll surprise her anyway."

Mother Needs Aid for Injured Boy, 10, Who Will Spend His Life in a Coma

HAMILTON, Ont. (AP) — A Canadian legislator plans to seek government aid for a mother whose 10-year-old son is doomed to live the rest of his life in a coma.

Art Child, conservative member of the Ontario Legislature said last night he will seek government aid for Mrs. Myrtle Oates.

Mrs. Oates learned yesterday that her son, Michael, who has been in a coma since an automobile accident Sept. 14, will never regain consciousness. Physicians said Michael could possibly live 60 years.

Michael's father was killed in the accident. His mother and sister, Donna, 8, were injured.

Since the date of his injury, he has only once made a noise. That was two months later when his mother, who had all her ribs and left arm broken in the accident, was wheeled into his hospital room to see him.

"He looked at her for several minutes," a nurse said. "Then his eyes filled with tears. He cried very hard" for about a minute. Then he groaned quite loudly and stretched one hand toward her."

Dr. R. A. Hughes, a neurologist, said a board of doctors reviewed the case yesterday and reached the decision that Michael's brain suffered such injury that he could never regain consciousness.

An operation was performed the day after the accident to remove a three-inch piece of bone which was pressing on his brain. That permitted him to open his eyes. Since then, Michael, his eyes always open, has stared at the wall. Mrs. Oates, who still is suffering from her injuries, said she did not know where she would get the money to pay bills that have accumulated since the accident.

Classified City Pay Increases Will Cost $9200

An estimated $9200 would pay for proposed salary increases for city employees from March 1 to July 1, when the budget for 1956-57 will include that item.

According to City Manager Robert W. Peterson, the $9200 would pay salaries for city workers on a new program submitted by the State Personnel Board. The program would create new classifications for present jobs, new jobs including an assistant to Peterson, and an equalization of present jobs based on responsibility requirements.

The program, including the creation of the job of Peterson's assistant, is scheduled for discussion at the special council meeting tonight.

The program was submitted to council three weeks ago at an information luncheon at El Mirador Hotel. It was agreed at that time to send it back for addition of job classification in the administrative level.

Council, at its regular luncheon meeting yesterday, further studied the plan, and recommended that four administrative jobs—city manager, city attorney, city clerk and finance director—be unclassified.

Marie A. Krotter Dies at DHS

Marie Annette Krotter, 60, Desert Hot Springs librarian and retired Los Angeles school teacher, died Sunday at the Desert Hospital following an illness of several weeks.

She came to Desert Hot Springs five years ago with arthritis, and lived at 66-060 West Third street. She took a great interest in civic affairs and was secretary of the DHS Improvement Association.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m., today, at Wiefels and Son chapel, with the Rev. W. Bauserman officiating. Private services were followed by cremation and interment was in Montecito Memorial Park near Loma Linda. Wiefels and Son mortuary was in charge.

6 of 7 Weekend Runaways Caught; One is Object of 3-State Search

Of seven desert area youngsters who ran away from home over the weekend, six are in custody, and one is still being sought by police in three states.

Two 12-year-old girls and two 13-year-old boys are in custody in Indio today after they were picked up in Rialto by Highway Patrol officers who saw they were in a stolen car.

One of the boys escaped at the time of the arrest, about midnight, and returned to his Indio home this morning. The other boy will be returned from Rialto today.

The girls were returned to their homes by their parents. They admitted going with the boys, stealing the car from Prentice Farmer in Indio, and driving it till it ran out of gas near Thousand Palms.

THE FOURSOME walked up Ramon Road to the Outpost Estates, and then stole another car from Charles Connelly, of 32-150 Sky Blue Water. They drove that to Rialto, where they again ran out of gas and were spotted by the patrolmen.

House Group Approves Five Missile Projects

By UNITED PRESS
The House Armed Services Committee gave speedy approval to five guided missile projects today amid a continuing controversy over the size of the nation's missile effort.

Even as the House group acted, Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, warned the Senate Armed Services Committee that Russia may beat the United States in the race to develop the intercontinental ballistic missile.

Four of the Air Force missile projects approved by the House committee were labeled secret. But Rep. L. Mendel Rivers (D-SC) said they would "increasingly increase" the effort to develop an intercontinental ballistic missile.

Flying Saucer Over Airport Baffles Paris

PARIS (AP) — The French government sought today to solve the mystery of the "phantom of Orly," a gigantic flying-saucer-like object which whirled across the airport's radar screen at supersonic speed last Friday.

It was the third time in less than a year that the "phantom" has been charted on radarscopes at the busy international airfield outside of Paris. The object was described as about twice the size of the largest known plane, moved at times at an estimated 2000 miles an hour, and hovered around the airport for about four hours.

Amy Belle Bailey Killed by Own Auto at Home

Amy Belle Bailey, 60, 66-434 Pierson, Boulevard, Desert Hot Springs, died Saturday afternoon in Desert Hospital following a freak accident in the yard of her home, in which she was run over by her own automobile.

Mrs. Bailey was opening the gate which blocked the driveway, when the car rolled down the grade, knocked her down and ran over her.

Taken to Desert Hospital, she died approximately three hours later.

Only immediate survivor is her husband, John J. Bailey.

Funeral services will be held at noon, Wednesday, from the Church of the Reformation, Forest Lawn, with the Rev. Dr. Brower, pastor of the Glendale Baptist church, in charge. Interment will follow in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Wiefels and Son Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Morris Resigns from Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblyman G. Delbert Morris (R-Los Angeles), currently serving a one to 14 year term in prison for perjury, today resigned from the Legislature, effective Feb. 29.

Morris was sentenced to prison by Superior Judge John A. Hewicker in San Diego county after he was convicted of lying to a Grand Jury in connection with a $2600 under the counter payment made by a resort owner for a liquor license.

In addition to the prison term, Morris was fined $5000.

Airline Ocean Fares Increased

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has "reluctantly" granted temporary approval for increased transpacific and North Atlantic first class passenger airline fares.

The board warned airlines are getting into "an unhealthy" economic situation by providing special services for first class passengers without making special charges to finance them.

The Weather

Variable cloudiness today through Wednesday with mostly sunny days. Chance of a few snow showers surrounding Owens Valley. Slightly warmer afternoons. Highs today 55-67 upper valleys, 67-77 lower valleys.

New Districting Wrists Served on 2 City Officials

Mayor Florian Boyd and finance director Shelby Langford yesterday were served writs of mandamus filed by Attorney Leonard Bock with the Supreme Court of California, designed to stop further proceedings toward the election of councilmen, set for April 10.

The writ, similar to the one filed February 6 with the fourth district Court of Appeals and denied Saturday, will have to be formally answered by City Attorney Jerry Bunker by Friday.

The matter will then be brought before the Supreme Court of California for decision for or against the plaintiff, Herbert Hass.

Hass' contents in the suit, which has been through Superior and Appellate Courts today, that city council is not representative of the population in its districts.

Palm Springs is one of the few cities, Hass said, which has voters within a district voting for one councilman to represent them. He said that according to county voting rolls, some districts include as many as five county districts, and some only one.

The plan was put to the people last year, requiring a two-thirds majority. It passed by simple majority, but failed in the required proportionment.

Tass' contention is that such a requirement is not constitutional.

Dr. Lechner to be Rotary Speaker for 20th Time

Making his twentieth appearance before the Palm Springs Rotary Club as a featured speaker, Dr. John R. Lechner, Executive Director of the Americanism Educational League, will address the Club on "Peaceful Co-existence" at its luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Tennis Club.

Dr. Lechner is one of the nation's most noted speakers on Americanism. He holds four earned university degrees, majoring in political science in preparation for his public service in this field. Since 1925, he has spoken before more than 12,000 civic and patriotic organizations, and has had in excess of seven hundred radio broadcasts.

Early this month, the board of directors of the League voted to tender a patriotic testimonial dinner, honoring thirty years of service in this patriotic work, and will invite civic, patriotic, business, labor, school and church leaders. Palm Springs members of the board are Keith A. Herbert, Oliver B. Jaynes, Dr. Henry S. Reid, Robert S. Howard, and Harold J. Hicks.

Dr. Lechner holds many citations from such organizations as the American Legion for his leadership in the fight for American

Capacity Crowd Attends Party at De Luxe Park

Valentine party at De Luxe Trailer Park Tuesday was attended by a capacity crowd, with everyone proclaiming it the "best party of the season."

The decor of the ballroom was Valentine colors of red and white. Huge red hearts with appropriate sentiment were festooned around the hall, and massive tumbleweeds hung with a myriad of little red hearts, were placed strategically around the hall.

At the buffet table were beautiful Valentine cakes and coffee, all having been made by the ladies in the park. Inez Olerud, the artist, and teacher of the De Luxe Class in Oil painting, was in charge of the table decorations, with red and white prevailing, and centered with a huge Mosaic heart of flowers, shaded from red desert verbenas to dark purple pansies, interspersed with white alyssum.

LOU WEATHERS, emcee and chairman of the entertainment committee, arranged a program of novelty numbers, and all participating were residents of De Luxe.

Prizes were awarded Ruth and Charles Brislin for the best waltzers. The De Luxe Park orchestra furnished the music for the program and the dance.

Mayor H. O. "Whitey" Domsted, of Bremerton, Wash., arrived by plane to attend the Bremerton-Kitsap County Picnic. Although staying at the Desert Air Hotel, Mayor Domsted spent most of his time at the De Luxe Trailer Park in Cathedral City, where many Bremertonians have their trailers.

A dance was given at De Luxe

STUDENTS STOP HERE ON FIRST LEG OF BICYCLE TRIP

Dan Douglas, a student at San Jose State, stopped over in Palm Springs Saturday on the first leg of a 6,000-mile bicycle trip circling the nation. He left San Jose February 9 and from here, turned eastward. He plans to take the southern route to Washington, D.C. and then return via the northern rim of the United States. Douglas believes he'll be able to complete his circuit of the nation by mid-July. Then he plans to return to his studies at San Jose State.

A Little Fear Needed

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (UP) — Three-year-old Rebecca Krauser fell down a flight of stairs in her home last June. Seven months later, she did the same thing in the same place. "The horrible part of it is," her mother said, "that she still isn't a bit afraid of the stairs."

A FASHION SHOW by "Scotts Desert Wear" shop in Cathedral City, will be featured during the interlude of the regular De Luxe Wednesday night dance.

The latest in squaw dresses for square dancing will be modeled by ladies in De Luxe Park, and appropriate dresses for folk dancing. Also cotton dresses and desert attire.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott, themselves professional dancers, will take part in a selected set to demonstrate the dresses "in action." Men's Western attire will also be modeled, such as frontier pants, boots, shoes, shirts and hats.

Trojan Choir Due Here Mar. 12

Trojan Choir of the University of Southern California will appear in the Village during its annual Spring tour, coming here for a concert at 8:15 p.m., Monday, March 12, at the Calhulla School.

Tickets for the performance will be available from members of the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, which sponsors their appearance here. Civic Chorus season tickets also will be honored.

Following the performance, the group will be hosted at a dinner at Deep Well. The group will be housed overnight and given breakfast at the Palm Springs Pueblo.

Horse Crazy

OMAHA, Neb. — (UP) — Irwin Chapman, 27, told police he answered his doorbell, and a man with a gun pushed inside the apartment. "I want that," the man said, pointing at a home-made rocking horse. He put it under his arm and walked out, Chapman said.

Rancho Trailer Park Reports Newcomers

Miss Lindy Kay has returned to Palm Springs from Santa Cruz. She was visiting in Santa Cruz at the time of the heavy rains and flood and suffered considerable damages to her new convertible. The car was completely submerged by the waters and required a complete overhaul. Her mother is visiting her while her home at Santa Cruz undergoes extensive repairs from the flood damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bailey were visited during the past week by Mrs. Bailey's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lum Raymer from Everett, Washington.

The McTaggart left February 11 for Mineral Hot Springs. They were caught in the heavy snow on their way down from Canada and he suffered a severe back strain. Freeman and Billie Pepper are new owners of a ramada at Rancho. Mr. Pepper recently retired from the Federal Bureau of Prisons. His last assignment was at Alcatraz Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rainey are newcomers to Rancho having moved south from Seattle, Washington. Mr. Rainey has just retired after forty years in the U. S. Postal Department. They are well located in the park, having purchased the Crowley ramada. Eugene and Bessie Melchert are also newcomers to the park having moved here from Los Angeles. They recently purchased the Frank Sawyer ramada on Lot D-1.

Ruth Davis, Elnora Couch and Lola Roche visited the opening of the new Mormon Temple in Los Angeles.

The "Monty" Montgomerys returned to the park February 11 from San Francisco. Their delay in reaching Palm Springs was occasioned by his illness.

Shuler and Grace Bland, owners of Blands Beach at Lake Tahoe, were guests at the recent Valentine's dance.

Amanda and Everett Tooker have returned from a trip to Florida. They celebrated their return to our desert sunshine by purchasing a new 29 foot Boles Aero trailer.

A group of 32 ladies from Rancho attended the Valentine birthday luncheon at the Community church on February 14.

Safeway Drops Prices of Beef

The Los Angeles Distribution Division of Safeway Stores announced today that prices on all beef cuts have been reduced in its Southern California store.

New prices represent per pound reductions of as much as ten cents on many cuts, according to M. F. Heller, Safeway's Los Angeles Division Manager. Some of the beef cuts that have been reduced as much as ten cents include round steak, sirloin tip roasts and steaks, rump roast and New York steaks.

"The reductions are an effort on the part of Safeway to stimulate consumption and help cattle producers move the surplus of beef which is hanging over their market," Heller said.

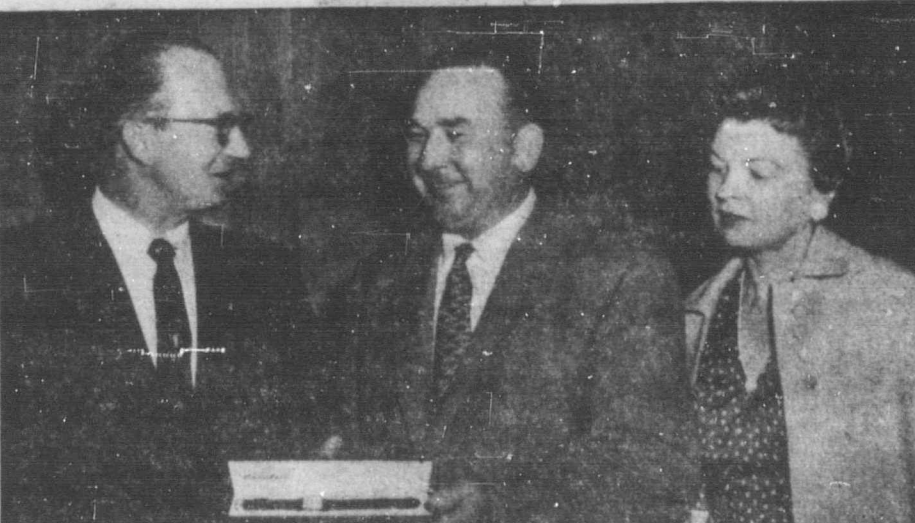

The company will continue its policy of selling only USDA Choice beef cuts, fully aged and trimmed.

Advisory Group to Discuss New County Budget

Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee will discuss the new county budget, as it affects the Coachella Valley, at the regular monthly meeting Monday evening at Carr's Cafe in Desert Hot Springs.

The dinner session will start at 6:30 p.m., and the discussion meeting will follow at 8.

President Ted Smith asked that all members attend, and bring questions relating to the topic.

JOE BUTLER, center, manager of the local Safeway store, was awarded a 25-year service award recently by Frank Shea, Riverside district manager, while Mrs. Butler looked on approvingly. Butler, a native of Wanesboro, Tennessee, first joined Safeway in October of 1930.

as a retail clerk in the Riverside area. Shortly thereafter, he was promoted to the position of location manager, which position he still holds. The Butlers, who have two children, reside at 563 Camino Real.

Eldridge Seconds Ike's Gas Veto

Fred Eldridge, Corona rancher and candidate for Congress in the 29th District, today put his stamp of approval on President Eisenhower's veto of the controversial natural gas bill.

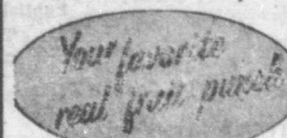

Taking a slap at what he called "free spending lobby influences," he said that if the current charges are true, "it is unthinkable that our government process should be subject to such activities."

"I have followed closely the charges which arose in the passage of the natural gas bill. I heartily endorse the President's veto of this bill for the reasons he stated," Eldridge said.

If all the telegraph wires United Press leaves for the exclusive purpose of sending its news were tied together into a single strand, it would be long enough to reach the moon and back.

Chevrolet Keeps Sales Leadership for 20th Year

Sales leadership of the automobile industry by more than 100,000 vehicles was credited to Chevrolet today as the R. L. Polk & Co., announced final registration figures for 1955.

The Polk figures gave Chevrolet a lead of 67,405 new passenger cars and 33,891 trucks for a combined margin of 101,296 units over its nearest competitor.

Chevrolet passenger car registrations reached 1,640,681, said the Polk report, with trucks hitting 329,791.

T. H. Keating, general manager of Chevrolet, pointed out that the figures set a new record for the industry in passenger car sales.

Bank of America Starts Contest

Search began this week in high schools throughout Southern California, including Palm Springs, to find the 1,700 senior students for recognition under Bank of America's 1956 Achievement Awards program. The top 180 students will receive cash awards totaling $22,100, an increase of $4,500 over last year's cash awards. Highest awards of $1,000 each will go to eight students.

In addition to the cash, 575 students will win gold cups, and 1,700 will receive certificates of achievement in the southland. Similar awards will be given in other phases of the banks statewide program in central and northern California. The statewide cash awards total $44,900 this year.

Newspapers Don't Want Controls

The newspapers of the nation are confronted with two serious problems relating to the life blood of their business — the paper on which they are printed. A few months ago the price of newsprint was increased again, although the publishers do not believe that it was warranted, and now in the last two months a serious shortage in this print has arisen which is already working a great hardship on many newspapers throughout the country. Many of them have had to curtail production considerably and some are on the verge of having to suspend publication. Advertising space is already being rationed by many publishers who are feeling the pinch.

With the situation as serious as it is, the newspapers are still generally opposed to seeking controls by the Federal government. At their recent state convention, the California Newspaper Publishers Association went on record as against any attempt by the government to control the price of newsprint, maintaining that the price of newsprint and the distribution are matters between the buyer and seller in maintenance of a free press. The resolution further asked that the California members of Congress vigorously oppose any attempts to interfere with the historic relationship between publishers and newsprint manufacturers of the United States and Canada.

The newspapers believe that they can settle their problems of correction of the price and supply of newsprint without seeking the help of the Federal government. In seeking such control, newspaper men believe that they would be jeopardizing the freedom of the press which they have guarded so zealously. The course they have determined to follow may be a pretty rough one at times because it appears this newspaper shortage may last for three years, but they still prefer to weather the storm rather than seek Government controls which might set a dangerous precedent. This attitude by the press may well set a good example for other industries which are too much inclined to ask federal legislation in solving problems of their industry, which, under the free enterprise system, they could better do themselves.

The Political Front
(Kingsville, Texas, Record)

On the political front at Washington, Ike has the experts guessing but he acts like a man who might turn candidate anytime. The GOP bosses remember what Richard Nixon said a few months ago. "The party can't win without Ike" or words to that effect. And young Dick was as right as a shower in April.

Over in the Democrat camp, the Donkey Parade is getting off to a fast start with Adlai sounding off loudest and Davy Crockett Kefauver and Harriman chiming in. Their childish prattle is a little confusing, even to an old-timer who has survived Democratic rule in a one-party state like Texas. One day they tell you Ike is petting the idle rich and doing everything wrong, and the next day

Captive Audience
(Brownwood, Texas, Banner)

If a member of a political party, or a civic or fraternal organization, doesn't like the policies and programs of the organization's leadership he has a simple recourse. He can resign, without penalty, and join another group or none at all, as he chooses.

But suppose a member of a labor union doesn't like the stand on personalities and policies taken by the union officials. Then the situation becomes utterly different. As the Wall Street Journal accurately states the matter, "In many cases withdrawal from the union would mean withdrawal from his livelihood. So here he is, not only a captive audience they say he's swiped the New Deal and Fair Deal from them and added something they hadn't thought up yet but were going to as soon as it occurred to them. McCarthy joins the smear Ike campaign, too, but his mud doesn't carry any further than you can cast an aspersions left-handed.

Down here in Texas where we have only Democrats, it looks like there'll be a party split — three groups, one that's been indicted, one that's been convicted, and a third that hasn't been caught yet.

Practically everyone in the last named group is going to run for Governor in the first primary, but it looks like the Democrats are going to have to bring Sen. Daniel back from Washington to have a candidate in the same class as Mrs. Caesar,

No Bargain at Any Price
(Apache, Okla., Review)

A recent survey, conducted in 19 states in the midwest, south and southeast, reveals that there are nearly 21 million acres of rich, idle farm land available for crop production when more food is needed to feed the nation.

At the same time, according to Rep. Craig Hosmer, Republican of California, government plans are under way to take additional acreage out of production because of the huge surpluses of food the for the union leaders' political propaganda but also — if he happens to disagree with the official union line — an unwilling accomplice in the promotion of that line."

This, of course, is inevitable under the closed shop and union shop system — a system which is based, in effect, on the premise that a man must join a union and pay dues or be refused the right to work and earn a living for his family. That is intolerable in a supposedly free country. The solution is found in the right-to-work laws, which protect workers from either union or employer coercion, and which so far have been adopted by 17 of the sovereign states.

JEB RUSSELL contributes this bit of Ozarkana:
Couple of Eastern tourists were driving along a back road in Arkansas; when their right of way was disputed by a rootin', tootin' mob of mountaineers, some on horseback, others on muleback, their whiskers streaming in the wind as they urged on their mounts with blood-curdling whoops. The tourist noticed a native woman eyeing the pack without too much interest, and inquired, "Sheriff's posse, ma'am?" "Nope," she answered. "Possum hunting?" "Nup, not that neither, hunting?" "Nup not that neither."

"Well, then, what on earth are those fellows chasing?" "It's like this strangers," explained the woman. "Buzz Wetferby's son Lance is twenty-one today and the boys is tryin' to turn him down to put pants on him."

"How long," Mr. Ginsberg's friend sympathized, is your mother-in-law going to stay with you?"

Four weeks from today," answered Mr. G with a sigh, "it will be five weeks."

YOU MAY NOT HAVE A CHERRY TREE. OR EVEN OWN AN AX. BUT, LIKE GEORGE, STRESS VERACITY COMPUTING INCOME TAX.

Tomorrow we celebrate the anniversary of the birth of George Washington. He gave us a shining example of frankness and truthfulness when caught by a hewed-down cherry tree.

So, with George in mind, this would be a good week to fill out 1040s. Stone walls and bars DO a prison make.

But, getting back to that Cherry tree. Maybe he was just preparing for an Open House up Manhattan way.

ACCORDING TO MY BOOK of days, weeks and months, next week, February 27 to March 3, is a most extraordinary one.

It doesn't celebrate anything. It's practically the only seven-day period I know that someone hasn't jumped on to observe something.

We just have had kraut and frankfurter week and national pimiento week.

But next week we are on our own. Nothing special to eat or wear or think about.

Unless someone comes up to designate it as Nothing Week.

THIS WEEK, besides being National Advertising Week, is also Brotherhood Week. And, starting early yesterday morning, I am being kind to Bill Rashall. Greeting him with a cheery good-morning, refraining from pilfering his matches, cigarettes, wastebasket, et cetera.

I am even trying to find someone who occasionally irks me. So that I can play brother.

Before the week is over I shall go into Kenny Brott's bailiwick. He has six girls in there.

That'll be the place to play Big Brother.

SEE WHERE the State Department of Fish and Game and the California Optometric Association got together last week to issue a warning: Red is the most dangerous color for hunters to wear to keep from being shot up by fellow nimrods.

Tests showed, it was claimed, that 48,000 California hunters, are color-blind. Cannot see red. Research work further revealed that 12,000 hunters, when they look at something red, see almost black and a red-coated hunter looks like foliage to them. Tests showed that yellow is the safest color.

Watching motorists at stop signs, that theory seems to be true.

THE NATIONAL MAGAZINES devoted to items of interest to newspapermen, seem determined to keep the news gatherers well lubricated.

Recently the Publisher's Auxiliary urged greater cooperation between the press and the bar. And the latest issue of Editor and Publisher said that "fairness to all will result in Press-Bar cooperation."

In other words, a full jigger and pick up all of the tabs.

FORECAST POSSIBLE

(Editor's Note: The following article on President Eisenhower's illness was published in the October 11 issue of The Desert Sun. At that time many questions arose as to whether this columnist was minimizing the possibilities engendered in the President's illness. We are now republishing the same article so that one can see the ability to prognosticate some medical conditions.)

Our President took ill in the middle of the night with what was termed a mild attack of indigestion. Shortly thereafter, he developed a pain in his chest in the region of the heart, and his physician was called and came immediately.

Suspecting a coronary thrombosis, he gave Mr. Eisenhower some morphine hypodermically and the President relaxed and fell asleep for several hours. Meanwhile, he had telephoned to Fitzsimmon's Hospital for equipment and technicians to take an electrocardiogram which was made.

In consultation with the heart specialist of this army hospital, the condition of coronary thrombosis was verified, and the President was moved to the hospital in an automobile. This has aroused some criticism across the nation in medical circles, but one should really be present and should have directly viewed the President and determined his condition before criticism should be leveled at anyone.

ON ARRIVAL at the hospital the President was placed in bed, an oxygen tent over his head and chest, and an anticoagulant, Heparin, was administered to lessen the clotting of blood and to perhaps aid in the absorption of a recently formed clot. Other sedatives were administered to allay any restlessness and further consultation was brought in. Verification of the original diagnosis was made.

The President only had a slight fever the first day, after which his temperature was normal. He was gradually removed from oxygen by the fourth day, and removed entirely from it two days later. If you who read this have also read the two previous columns in The Desert Sun which were written by this columnist, you may remember the description which was given of the development of the thrombus, or clot, and the subsequent development of the adjacent infarct because of the blockage of the blood supply beyond the point of clotting.

NORMALLY, A FEVER will develop on the second or third day after the onset. The President had none. He was so comfortable that even though he was at an altitude of over 5,000 feet with less oxygen in the air at that level, his additional oxygen supply from a tent was discontinued before one week was over, indicating that his condition allowed this and there could not have been a serious amount of damage to his heart. I have personally seen individuals of the President's age who have come to the office for an interim physical checkup, who would on their electrocardiogram show evidences of a coronary thrombosis, and yet they had known nothing of its occurrence.

I remember distinctly one individual, the president of a bank, who could not recall any illness except while hunting in North Carolina he had what he thought a mild left pleurisy, with a slight fever, which he thought was a cold or influenza and remained in bed for two days and then resumed his hunting. To my mind, this had been his attack of coronary thrombosis, and he lived into his middle 70's before passing on from another, more serious, similar attack.

IT IS MY BELIEF that Mr. Eisenhower has suffered such a mild attack, and should under the present progress of this, make a complete and uneventful recovery. This should and could allow for many years of life with a good amount of activity.

I have before me a letter which I have received two days ago from an old patient. In 1931 this man had a severe coronary thrombosis, and was desperately ill. Four weeks after the onset of his heart condition he developed an acute gangrenous appendicitis, and it was with considerable anxiety that he was wheeled into the operating room where under local anesthesia his appendix was removed. In the past 24 years he has been a very active individual and leader of the legal profession.

HE WRITES AS follows: "I have just come back from a three-day fishing trip up north. I've been playing my usual nine holes when the weather is not too hot, and feel in good shape. I am a little annoyed by some of the statements made in the press concerning President Eisenhower, when they tell about the life expectancy of a coronary thrombosis case. I have outdistanced the period that most of them say is the limit of the remaining span of life. I suppose on that theory, I can well say I am living on borrowed time."

It is our feeling that the President will not have to consider himself living on borrowed time, but with ordinary caution after several months of restrained activity, he should continue to live the span of time allotted to him. We hope and think he will be able to serve this nation for another term.

Tallulah Gets $85 Weekly

NEW YORK — Tallulah Bankhead and I went out frolicking until dawn.

Our rendezvous wasn't too private — starting as it did before several hundred others at City Center. The audience's ecstatic "Bravos" pulled her on stage for a curtain speech. Arms outstretched appealingly, the Wham from Alabama cried, "DAR-lings!"

The audience laughed.

Then Tallulah laughed.

"The hardest thing in this play is that I can't say 'Dar-lings' once." She had that hoarse breathlessness that's her trademark. "You've made this such a happy moment of my life that I'm afraid to wake up tomorrow — BLESS YOU!"

I had a tear in my eye just from her curtain speech after "Streetcar Named Desire." Stumbling backstage, I encountered Margaret Truman, Mrs. Earl Warren, Virginia Warren and others equally choked up — also a famous doctor who'd treated her for her shingles and an ulcer, who assured her this was her most magnificent hour.

Then I took the B. W. to a party for Tallulah at the Bernard Goodwins, where Tallulah had an arm around playwright Tennessee Williams.

"I heard you two were feuding," I mentioned.

"He knelt at my feet tonight, darling," Tallulah replied.

"I knelt at her feet, twice," responded Tennessee gallantly.

"You should write a play JUST for Tallulah," said the B.W.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

Reds Have Weather Balloons

WASHINGTON — The reason is now clear why the Reds have been protesting so vehemently against U.S. weather balloons.

This noisy yakking is a typical cover-up for their doing the very same thing.

More than 50 Russian weather balloons are in American hands. They have been picked up in Alaska, Canada and the Pacific Northwest, and are similar to those used by this country.

They are about the same size as the latter, and like them are equipped with radios, cameras and other instruments — about which the Kremlin and its satellites have been so self-righteously indignant.

Several Communist balloons were found in American territory around the time they were putting on their big outrage act in Moscow.

The State Department has detailed reports, from Air Force and other military authorities, on the Soviet balloons and their operations. When this devastating evidence of the Reds' hypocrisy will be used against them is still undetermined.

Secretary Dulles favors holding this counter-blast until Russia makes its expected move of raising the balloon issue in the United Nations.

That propaganda maneuver is anticipated before the next round of the long-drawn-out disarmament discussions gets underway in London in March. The Reds always pull a publicity stunt on these occasions.

MINIATURE SATELLITES — U.S. balloons do more than just gather valuable weather data. They are also sort of "miniature satellites."

That's the way they are described in an Air Force report. It discloses the balloons are part of a research program that has been in progress for several years. Publishable highlights of this study are as follows:

"The balloons are, in effect, miniature 'satellites' that can remain aloft for days and collect continuous research data. It is likely that information will be obtained which will be of importance when a man-made satellite is fired into the atmosphere within the next few years. . . . It is expected that valuable information will be obtained on jet streams, frontal systems, storm formations, radio propagation, and electric-magnetic radiation."

"So far, most of the 4,000 balloon flights have been conducted in the U. S. However, the co-operation of other governments has made it possible for small research stations to be established in these countries. Meteorological balloons have been flown from Brazil, Panama, Scotland, Japan and Okinawa. The addition of other research stations in Europe, Alaska, Canada and Hawaii this year will still further increase the scope of this highly important research program."

BULLETIN BOARD — Some 50,000 Army, Navy and Marine officers will be promoted this year; with the Army having the largest number with 26,564, the Navy next with 16,572, and the Marines with 3,796. Of the total, 111 will be general officers. . . . A "youth movement" is underway among Army non-coms. In order to get younger NCO's in the higher grades, retired retirements will be made among those with 30 years' service and those over 55 with 20 years' service. There will be certain exceptions, but the general rule will be to replace older non-coms with younger men.

MILK SHAKES OR MILK? Though most students eat a complete Type A lunch, some care only for a hamburger and milk shake. Yesterday the menu was wafers on a bun, relishes, green beans, carrot, raisin and pineapple salad, peach halves and milk. Note in the above picture that the second boy is drinking a milk shake and has in front of him a complete Type A lunch. (Desert Sun Photo)

Parents Complain, Schools Investigate, Board to Act

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Enrollment growth, organization, supervision, accounting and purchasing of the school cafeteria system have been listed as the chief causes of protest by local parents who say that "their children don't like to eat lunch at school."

Remedy for the situation, according to a 28-page report to the board of education by the school administration, asks for the complete reorganization of the cafeteria system, decentralization of cooking facilities, the hiring of a supervisor of school lunches at a beginning salary of $455 per month, and the establishment of a new accounting and purchasing system.

Dr. Wallace R. Muelder, school superintendent who prepared the report, recommended in the report that the snack bar at the high school be discontinued, as well as the sale of candy, that each individual school be used to prepare all school lunches for that school except the main course; and the setting up of a new accounting and purchasing system to replace the present one which "leaves much to be desired."

One of the most important steps recommended (and possibly the most controversial) is the discontinuance of the snack line service at the high school. Students have long fought for the right to have a snack bar service "because they do not have an open campus and cannot go downtown and get this type (hamburgers, hot dogs, and milk shakes) of lunch."

Administrators say they will put this food on the regular Type A lunch every week, but believe that students are purchasing inadequate lunches from the snack line.

DR. MUELDER SAID in the report "that the manner of purchasing and handling supplies and the accounting for funds need major revisions in order to operate the food service program economically, efficiently and properly."

This report is the outcome of protests by parents and students concerning the cafeteria operation the past year. It has been almost two months since the school administration started its investigations, and such claims as wasted food, poor menus, and excessive garbage (a report that the City of Palm Springs refused to pick up garbage because of the large amount) were found to be untrue.

On the other hand, reports from the students of long lines, untasty food (though high in nutrition value) were recorded as being caused by the tremendous growth of the schools' enrollment and because of the centralized kitchen, the necessity of having to prepare food early in the morning to be served later in the day, the food losing its tastiness, and setting in steam kettles for as many as three to four hours.

All the meals prepared now in the central kitchen must be made ready for shipment to the schools of the district by automobile. This car must travel to each school in the district (except the Junior and Senior High schools, and leave the food for the day's lunch.

EVEN THOUGH the present system was poor and the basis of protest by parents and students, between 900 and 1000 lunches are served daily in this school district. "The pupil participation is considerably in excess of that of most school districts," said Dr. Muelder, "and averages about 50 per cent of the enrolled students of all schools."

The personnel employed in the schools' food service program numbers 43 men, women and student workers, with 23 of these persons putting in more than 120 combined man hours.

In the month of January, 1956, 20,489 Type A lunches were served with a food cost per meal of 25.6 cents and labor cost per meal of 15.0 cents, making a total cost of 40.6 cents per meal served. The students pay 35 cents per meal. Dr. Muelder reported that "these costs are regarded as excessive and major efforts should be made to reduce food and labor costs by daily costing of menus, daily work schedules, and maximum use of federal surplus and donated foods."

This does not mean that the price of the meals to the students should be raised to meet the cost, for "in 1940 permissive legislation made the cost of supervision as well as cafeteria employees a charge against the general fund of the school district. In 1945 the governing board of the school district could, by resolution, pay the costs of maintenance of the physical plants used in connection with the cafeterias, plus the cost of replacement of equipment and the cost of all utilities, from the general fund. Changes in the statutes of 1945 provided that food would be served at a price that would carry the cost of maintaining the lunch program exclusive of the costs against the general fund."

IF THE BOARD of Trustees, next Thursday night, approves the recommendations of the report submitted to them by mail this morning, they will take the following action:

Authorize the establishment of separate school lunch programs and approve their inauguration in Calhulla, Frances Stevens, Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, Katherine Finchy and the High school for the year 1955-1956.

Designate individuals and organizations exempt from provisions of the education code who are permitted the use of school lunch facilities. (This will include participants in meetings called for the discussion of educational matters.)

Authorize the establishment of a cafeteria account.

Designate a district employee responsible for custody of funds in the cafeteria account.

Provide for a fidelity bond to cover all employees handling cafeteria funds.

Authorize participation in the National School Lunch Program and designation of authorized representative.

Employ cafeteria personnel. This will be the hiring of a Supervisor of school lunches at a salary of $455 per month, to begin duties on or about March 1, 1956, and terminate June 30.

Mrs. Marjorie Jensen, manager of the cafeteria for the district now, draws the highest salary of cafeteria employees — $320 per month. She is currently serving her first year with the district, and last month tendered a verbal resignation to business manager Paul Summers, which was not submitted to the board of education pending completion of this report. It was reported that Mrs. Jensen will remain in the capacity as manager of the central kitchen under the reorganization program.

The report was compiled following investigations and conferences with Mrs. Nell Cox, representative of the State Department of Education; Wade Ellis, local school district auditor; representatives of the office of county superintendent of schools of Riverside county; Dwight Cate, field representative of the State Department of Education, division of school administration; Dr. Lloyd Nelson of the University of Southern California; and local school district staff members.

In addition, students, parents, lunch room workers, and businessmen were called in to give critical evaluation and helpful suggestions.

Sorority-Sponsored Style Show Theme is Outer Space

"Fashion Flies to Outer Space". This is the theme for Fashionations of 1956, disclosed today by Mrs. William Roland Moore, President of Theta Sigma Phi alumnae chapter, which sponsors the gala, nationally-known biennial benefit.

The Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel is the "take-off" point, March 12 at 12:30 p. m. for a scene literally out of this world. Commenting this astro-ramic style parade will be Agnes McCay, Los Angeles Herald-Express fashion editor, who originated and personally staged the first Fashionations for Theta Sigma Phi ten years ago.

Walt Disney and Disneyland will re-create an outer-space setting, says Mrs. Homer Toberman, general chairman. Scientific models, arranged in their proper relationship to each other in the orbit 1,075 miles above the earth, will set the stage for the meteoric fashion showing.

The musical fantasy will rocket along to Joe Moshey's accompaniment setting the mood for the fashion galaxy, according to Mrs. Herbert Colfax Stinchfield, prologue chairman. "Futures unlimited" in stellar originals by 56 outstanding couturier designers will range from active sports to the most formal ball gowns. Designers who have created especially for Fashionations of 1956 include: William Cahill, Hattie Carnegie, Oleg Cassini, Cecil Chapman, Dior, Howard Greer, Peggy Hunt, Irene, Don Loper, Marusia, Addie Masters, Marjorie Michael, Ernest Newman, Pat Premo, Rose Marie Reid, Reig, Nettie Rosenstein, Adele Simpson, Edith Small, Trigrere.

Barbara Hass Has Party on Sixth Birthday

Little Miss Barbara Hass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hass of 920 San Lorenzo Road, observed her sixth birthday Saturday with a party at the family home.

The party which was in a Sweetheart theme, was enjoyed by the following children: Joy Bork, Susie Teitelbaum, Debbie Bronstein, Beth Ann Land, Sharon Rosenberg, Rachael Zanville, Sherry Alexander, Sandy Hillstrand, Kathy youngberg, Andrea Hass, Louisa Singer, Kim Johnson, Janet Sue and Marlene Chapman.

Barbara is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haimowitz.

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Friedman of Seaside, Oregon, were here for a fortnight's visit with their daughter-in-law Joan Friedman and her parents the Leo Bakers. They returned home on Sunday.

Dust fruits and nuts with flour before adding them to cake batter. The coating keeps them evenly spread through the mixture.

Birthdays Feted at Meeting of Emblem Club

A surprise party for three of their members marked the social meeting held by the Palm Springs Emblem Club on Wednesday. Birthday celebrants were Faye Erwin, Gertie Leppold and Bertie Rittenhour. Cake and refreshments were served.

President Kay Valentino expressed her thanks to all Emblem Club members who aided in the Heart Fund drive.

A visitation from the Supreme District Deputy Elaine Case is announced for the next business meeting which will be held Wednesday, March 7, at Wars Memorial Hall.

Auxiliary Meets This Evening

Initiation of several new members will be the highlight of the regular meeting of Owen Coffman Legion Auxiliary Unit 519 this evening at 8 p. m. New members to be initiated are Lucy Wahlgemuth, Cora Griffin, Helen Dalby, Louise Mochizuki, Tilly Bruder, and Hettie Hargraves.

February is America's Month. Jane Goff, Americanism chairman has arranged an interesting program following the initiation. Tony Biavaschi will bring his Boy Scout Troop No. 118 and present a program on Scouting.

Both the American Legion and the Auxiliary will enjoy a ham buffet prior to the meeting.

Stellar Program Headed by Sinatra and Phil Harris at Romantic Sweetheart Ball

All the romance and sentiment of a lace-edged valentine marked the second annual Sweetheart Ball at El Mirador on Friday evening, with Vicki and Billy Malouf reigning as the Sweethearts of the evening.

Clusters of pink and white balloons dangled from the ceiling and two big white cupids, suspended above the bandshell, were inscribed with the names "Vicki" and "Billy". The silver menus carried a heart-shaped picture of the popular pair.

On each table, set in a colorful flower arrangements, was a big heart, cut out of styrofoam and pierced with a great golden arrow. These and the room decorations were the work of Artist Earl Cordrey and his wife Kay.

This was one of the few formal affairs of the Palm Springs Season, with the women beautifully gowned and their escorts wearing black tuxes or white dinner jackets.

A huge frilled heart served as a frame, when the Sweethearts of last year, Enor and Jack French, and this year's Sweethearts, the Maloufs, were introduced. Joining them in an Anniversary Waltz were the following "Sweetheart Couples": Dick and Madeline Bagdasarian, Edith and Julian Bamberger, Dorothy and Harry Joe Brown, Marguerite and Harry Clatworthy, Hildy and Bill Crawford, Vic and O. E. L. Graves, Ruth and Lou Manseau, Annabelle and David Margolis, Edna and Ward Risvold, Hermine and Stan Rosin, B. J. and Belmont Sanchez, Buddy and St. Simon.

Harry Von Zell was a masterly master of ceremonies and June and Ross Clarke had arranged for some top stars for the program.

Frank Sinatra, who is being very generous with his talents since he became a Villager, sang "Love and Marriage" and "Tender Trap" and assisted Von Zell in auctioning off the oil painting, donated by Palm Springs artist O. E. L. Graves, for $1000.

Phil Harris, who has a home at Thunderbird and who has aided so many Village benefits, delighted the audience by singing some of the numbers for which he is best known, including "That's What I Like About the South" and his very funny poker monologue song.

In thanking the many people who had worked on arrangements for the Ball, Monte Herbert announced that the people who had bought tickets had made it possible for the Heart Fund to give an electro-cardiograph machine to the Desert Hospital.

Monte is chairman for the Riverside County Heart Association in the desert area, and he and his wife Bettye co-chairmanned the Ball for the second year. In recognition of his work, Irwin Montgomery of the Riverside County Heart Association, presented him with a silver cigarette box, a gift from the board of directors.

A dramatic highlight of the dinner hour was when Chef Knaak brought in a flaming heart-shaped torch to light the brandy on the cherries jubilee.

Dancing went on all evening to the music of Joe Moshay and his orchestra.

Rummage Sale
The annual Rummage Sale of the Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert will be March 17 and there will be no pre-sale, it was announced this week by Mrs. Charles Dent and Mrs. Maynard Groth, who will manage the sale.

Collection of merchandise is on in earnest. Articles may be left at the parish house at 125 West El Alameda in the mornings, or telephone 6988 or 5674 for pick-up service.

PHIL HARRIS yielded to the demand of his audience and sang "That's What I Like About the South" when he appeared on the program at the Sweetheart Ball. (El Mirador Photo).

Two Hostesses Arrange Table for Style Show

Mrs. William Eisenman and Mrs. Julian Bamberger will be co-hostesses for a luncheon table at the "Afternoon in Hawaii" fashion show luncheon at Hotel Oasis on Saturday.

At their table will be Mesdames A.D. Schaeffer of Philadelphia, J.K. Lilly of Indianapolis, Eli Lilly of Indianapolis, Carl Betcher of Red Wing, Minnesota, Cecil Thompson of El Paso, Charles Van Nest of Minneapolis, E. J. Meyering of Detroit, C. W. Allison of Palm Springs, F.A. Preston of Indianapolis, and Misses Alene Allison and Evelyn Gardner of Cleveland.

Recent House Guests at the Ralph Hancock home were Mr. Hancock's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hancock, of Springfield, Missouri, and a sister, Mrs. C. E. Walters of Los Angeles. The T. H. Hancocks flew to the West Coast on business. They are in Los Angeles visiting with Mrs. Walters, before returning East.

Tomorrow as we celebrate another February birthday... that of our First President... let's celebrate in the Washington tradition, tailoring it to fit Palm Springs... Tossing a dollar across the Tahquitz is easier than across the Potomac... but will get you nothing except maybe some publicity... There are no cherry trees to chop down on the desert... but you might plant a palm tree... This first President of ours was a truthful man... so emulating him, let's just say that Palm Springs is the greatest desert resort... with the most fabulous weather, scenery and goings-on in the whole country... and, skipping the first of the phrase, let's try to be "first in the hearts of our countrymen"...

Warm sunshine flooded the wall-garden at the McClures' home on Mesquite Sunday morning... when Lillian and John entertained at a chuckwagon brunch... honoring the Ed Rothbarts... Ed is an attorney in Chicago... and he and his wife Edna have the Marjorie Hall house here for the rest of the winter... Dorothy and Harry Joe Brown were there, with her cousins Beatrice and Fernand Laval, New Villagers Dr. and Mrs. Earl Pound, Alta and George Roberson and Lou Schilling, Lou was telling me that her sister, Ruth Valeur, has one hand in a splint bandage after a tilt with a can opener... Kay Oberfeld's Dolf was home with the virus... and Bettye Herberts' Monte was playing golf... With her at the brunch were their houseguests, the Byron Reynolds, for whom they entertained the previous evening... Everyone joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to S. P. Manasse, who was there with his Margaret... In the crowd enjoying the brunch, the sunshine and the accordion music of Harold Tonne, were Nellis and Al Hunt, the Earl Cordreys, Ed Falgrens, Red Carters, Dr. John and Gwen Costello... Jack and Helen Kenaston (she has been down all week with the virus); Lillian and Franklyn MacCarthy (they went in town yesterday for a few days); Vicki and Billy Malouf, Vicki's sister Emma Nassour, and Otto Olsen (Los Angeles postmaster)... Bertine Treat, Charles Swartzbaugh, Marj Pohl, the George Wheelers, Ethel and Jack Luccareni... Mrs. Maynard Laswell, the Bill Bannermans, Emma Gale and her houseguest, Mrs. Gordon Mason of Dallas... the Joe Pawlings, Fred Albertsons, Horace Majors... Dodie and Hugo Steinmeyer, who are at the Desert Inn, Pearl McManus, B.J. Sanchez, and Win Becker... Win is expecting a full house this week... Daughter Carolyn and her husband John King are here from Hinsdale, Illinois for a week or so... and Carolyn's twin sister Marilyn and her husband Chic Baker are coming over from Riverside so the twins can celebrate their birthday together tomorrow... Win's sister Mrs. Kenton Cravens and her daughter Mrs. Bill Phelan are arriving from St. Louis... and Charlie (Win's husband) is due home on Thursday...

Had some of my favorite tacos and enchiladas at the Farmers Market Saturday... and ran into Edith Edwards as I was leaving... She says they had a divine time in Acapulco and that Dick is still recuperating from the whirl of parties... They returned last week... Ron Ellis was having an extra-curricular soda... and was telling me the secret of his latest card trick that is mystifying party guests... He was going to try it out that evening at a small party Bertine and Collis Steere were giving for Dorothy Bailey who is planning a South American trip... Bettye and Monte Herbert, relaxing after the beautiful Sweetheart Bay they co-chaired the night before... had a few guests in Saturday night to meet the Byron Reynolds... Bettye's charming daughter VeeVee is married to Byron Reynolds Jr... A surprise for the Herberts was the gift of a painting from Vie and Bud Graves... with Joe Froggatt making the presentation... It was the painting Monte had selected to be auctioned off at the Ball... Bud substituted another painting as his donation to the Heart Fund... so he and Vie could give the Herberts the one Monte had selected...

Toni Marsh, who was in the 'South Pacific Room last season, danced at El Mirador's Sunday Brunch... with Otto Allgower and his charming wife joining her... Tex Kidwell played the Hawaiian music and Johnny Boyle, the Tahitian music... It was Bernie Young's birthday and Chef Gerhard Knaak had decorated a big cake for her... featuring a violin (she is an accomplished violinist)... Millie and Ed Houghton were there... and that was Liz Whitney, in jeans, at Ray Ryan's table... The Sunday Brunch which was born in the Kiva Room... continues to crowd El Mirador Room each week... The one on Easter Sunday should be a sell-out... It will feature Joan McManus' Easter Hat parade... that has always been so popular in Palm Springs.

Escorting Blanche Andreus at the Sweetheart Ball was Major Richard Clark Markille, in Army dress blues... He leaves for Korea next month... Poolside lunching at the Racquet Club Sunday were the Raymond Loewys and the Donald Stralens (she just arrived this past week)... Due at the Racquet Club this week are Charles and Mollie Berns of "21" Club in Manhattan... Louise and Maury Horner, Kay and Howard Morris went down to Tijuana to the jai alai games Sunday... and are spending three days in the San Diego area with Captain and Mrs. "Gloom" Mills... They will attend several parties and give one at the Officers Club on North Island... Dorothy and Horace Horner of Rumson, New Jersey arrive on February 28 for a visit with the Horners...

Harry Von Zell should have been singing "Luck Be a Lady Tonight"... when he was emceeing the Sweetheart Ball... When he called a door prize number and no one claimed it, he threw the ticket aside and drew again... After the door prize, an Italian Iso midget car, was awarded... Harry discovered that his own ticket which he didn't take out of his pocket, would have been the winning one.

Around 100 guests enjoyed the Friday chuckwagon brunch... at the Frank Camp home on Mission Road... There were so many cars parked up and down the street that one curious neighbor dropped over to ask what was going on... It was a bright sunny day and the tables were set up in the citrus grove out in back...

Mrs. Clara Smidt of Los Angeles spent a few days in Palm Springs visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael Calmy, on her way to Phoenix.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the betrothal of Virginia Sue Ritter, daughter of the George Ritters, and Michael Willing, who teaches at St. Theresa School. They are planning an April wedding.

Sue Ritter to be Wed on April 4

Announced this week was the betrothal of Virginia Sue Ritter, daughter of the George Ritters of Whispering Palms Trail, and John Michael Milling.

The engagement was disclosed Wednesday night when the bride-to-be entertained sister members of the Sigma Phi Lambda Sorority at the family home. A paper with the names of the engaged couple was concealed inside a peanut shell and passed around in a bowl of peanuts.

Sue, a graduate of the Palm Springs high school, attended Christian College in Columbia, Missouri for the first semester this year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Milling of Pasadena, Mike is on the faculty at St. Theresa School, where he teaches the eighth and ninth grades. He is a graduate of Loyola where he was a member of Sigma Phi Zeta.

The marriage is set for April 4 at St. Theresa Church. At the Wednesday night announcement party were the Misses Stephanie Bruton, Gretchen Gearhart, Judy Watlett, Mary Lee Paul, Ruth Martin, Jo Sanders, Elizabeth Simon and Merry K. McGahey.

Mrs. Vernon Reinhardt arrived from Milwaukee the latter part of the week to take possession of the house they purchased at 1275 Pasatiempo Road. Mr. Reinhardt will join his wife here as business permits.

AT THE HAWAIIAN LUNCHEON to be held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Max Grone, Mrs. Kurt Laemmle, national vice chairman of the United Jewish Welfare Fund, will be the speaker.

Hawaiian Luncheon

An Hawaiian luncheon at the home of Mrs. Max Grone at 447 Via Escuela, is being arranged by the Women's Division of the United Jewish Welfare Fund. It will be held at 1 p. m. on Thursday.

Mrs. Kurt (Alyse) Laemmle, a national vice chairman will be the speaker.

Mrs. Laemmle, now an insurance executive, has the distinction of being one of the few women in the United States to become a member of the exclusive One Million Dollar Round Table.

A member of the famous Hollywood pioneer motion picture family, Mrs. Laemmle makes her home in Los Angeles, where she is an active leader of numerous Jewish philanthropic and welfare groups. She is a member of the Steering Committee of Los Angeles United Jewish Welfare Fund and a national vice-chairman of the American ORT Federation. Her talk is based on her own personal experiences, since she has made numerous trips to Europe, Israel and North Africa.

Executives Hold Conference Here

A group of executives from the Charles Bruning Company of Los Angeles checked into the La Paz Monday for a business conference.

The men include D. D. Snyder, R. A. Munch, H. W. Olsen, P. G. Duff, N. B. McKinnon, B. R. Nelson, J. F. Johnson, W. F. Cronk.

Mr. and Mrs. Don O'Hara of The Dalles, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Long of Salem, Oregon, are here on vacation. They are staying at the Stutz Salda.

Moonlight Ride

Los Compadres are planning a moonlight ride to the Indian Corral (the cave just north of Sunny Cove) on Saturday evening.

Members will meet at the clubhouse for cocktails at 6:30 and dinner will be served at the cave at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Victor Minahan of Green Bay, Wisconsin, is at Hotel Oasis for her 25th Winter in Palm Springs. With her is her daughter-in-law Mrs. Louise Turinas, who will leave in a few days for New Orleans to join her husband, who is there on business.

La Paz Plans Tea Dances

Jack Linthicum managing director of Las Paz, has issued invitations for the premiere tea dance of the season, to be held in the hotel patio next Sunday from four to seven. Following the original and invitational affair, the tea dance will become a weekly custom and open to the public.

A four piece orchestra will supply society type music and tea and refreshments will be served. The tea dance revives a pleasant custom and differs from the popular Eastern tea dance, since in Palm Springs it can be held al fresco.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles N. Carmichael (he's the Tulsa oil man) are at the Sunset Towers for a month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Avison of Portland are here for their sixth season on the desert. They are at the Lone Palm for three weeks.

FAMOUS RECORDING STARS NITELY

1450 N. INDIAN AVE. Ph. 2744 Under New Management

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Patent Office

NEW YORK —(AP)—Parry O'Brien, the handsome husky from California, stands head and shoulders over the field today as the outstanding athlete of 1956—and he'll take a lot of beating.

Personally, I don't think anybody can touch him. His feat in putting the shot 61 feet, 5 and 1/4 inches in the National AAU championships Saturday night was, whether or not you are a track and field enthusiast, almost inconceivable.

It made him the Babe Ruth and the Bobby Jones of the short pants sport.

NOBODY BUT RUTH ever hit 60 home runs in one season. Nobody but Jones ever slammed golf's British and U.S. open and amateur championships in one year.

And nobody but the O'Brien ever heaved the 16-pound shot 60 feet, let alone 61 plus.

It was a completely outstanding performance under adverse conditions. His fantastic toss was accomplished indoors, at Madison Square Garden. Not a man who needs an alibi, the 225-pound Parry when he came east for his indoor efforts had pointed out analytically that indoor shot putting was not conducive to record breaking.

"THERE'S A LOT of difference between putting indoors and outdoors," he explained. "The most important, probably, is the difficulty of getting the 'feel' of the larger, covered shot used indoors. The difference means several inches, at least."

So what did the man do? A week earlier he flipped the big iron ball 59 feet, nine inches, for a new world indoor record, breaking his own indoor record by some five inches.

Stop now, before considering his performance a week later in the AAU championships, and remember that at Helsinki in 1952 he won the shot put championship with a new Olympic mark of 57 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

Subsequently he created the outdoor mark of 60 feet, 10 inches.

SO LAST Saturday night he started off with a pair of fouls as his motion carried him out of the shot put circle. One measured 59 feet, the other one 60 feet. Then, fearful that he might not qualify, he settled for 58.6 and 59.4 heaves, made while practically standing still. Then he fouled off a 59 foot—and finally threw caution to the winds with a world's all-time best of 61 feet, 5 and 1/4 inches.

And every toss was better than the outdoor Olympic record.

BUT PARRY, a lieutenant in the Air Force, still isn't satisfied. He's figuring on a shot put—discus double in the Olympics and is hitting 180 feet consistently with the metal plate. The Olympic record is 180 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

"Very happy" with his shot put world record, O'Brien is "really excited" about "finding myself" with the discus.

But then, why should he be excited about tossing the shot 61 feet, 5 1/4 inches when no other man ever has hit 60 feet? After all, the young man thinks he'll hit 63 feet before he's finished. And he'll probably do it, too.

Indians Idle in League Tonight

Coach Ralph Watt's Palm Springs high school Indians draw a bye tonight in Riverside County league play and will wind up the season Friday night at Perris high school.

The Indians have won the RCL basketball title and are now preparing for CIF competition against champions of other southern leagues.

CIF play will start next week.

Red Diamonds Top Polo Play

Double Win Puts Local Team Ahead

Play Defending San Bernardino Team this Week

The Palm Springs Red Diamonds won both their games in the Pacific Coast 10-goal Championship Polo Tournament Saturday and Sunday to lead the six-team field at the two-thirds mark of the match played at Shadow Mountain Stables and the Palm Springs Polo Grounds.

Next week they will play the defending champions, San Bernardino, at the stables.

The first weekend game the Red Diamonds played was against San Francisco Polo team, at the stables. They went ahead early in the game, and never were caught. Final score was 10-6. Red Diamond Allen Scherer was outstanding on both offenses and defense.

SUNDAY, at the stables, the Red Diamonds won their fourth straight by taking a 14-11 game away from Beverly Hills, in spite of Don Howden's fine playing for the visiting 10-goal team.

The other local team, Shadow Mountain Polo Club, heads into next weekend's finals as runners-up to the Red Diamonds. They won both games this weekend, with their last week's split, giving them a three wins and one loss game score.

SATURDAY the SMPC beat Beverly Hills Polo Club in a tight, hard-fought game, 10-8. Sunday, Shadow Mountaineer Lisle Nixon scored seven goals to lead his team to a 14-8 victory over defending champions San Bernardino.

Shorty Funkhouser was the star of the losing team, scoring half of their total goals that day.

At the Polo Grounds on Saturday, San Bernardino won their first game of the tournament when they knocked off the La Jolla Polo team, 7-4. Monty Montgomery, of the defenders, scored six of the seven tallies to lead the scoring that day.

SUNDAY, LA JOLLA snapped back into championship form, and beat San Francisco, 7-3. Willis Allen, of La Jolla, was high scorer in that match with four goals.

The standings so far are as follows:

1st—Red Diamonds—4 won. Allen Scherer, Larry Funkhouser and Bill Schulte.
2nd—Shadow Mountain Polo Club—3 won, 1 lost. Ted Pierce, Lisle Nixon and Skip Dwyer.
3rd—San Bernardino—2 won, 1 lost. Shorty Funkhouser, Blaine Stephenson, Lloyd Phillips, and Monty Montgomery.
4th—La Jolla—2 won, 2 lost. Bob Winger, Willie Allen and Gail Medcott.
5th—Beverly Hills—1 won, 3 lost. Morrie Morrison, Ted Turner and Don Howden.
6th—San Francisco—4 lost. Bill Mayberry, Ted Heiser, Willie Travis and Guy Campbell.

NEXT SATURDAY will be the final schedule day at Shadow Mountain Stables, and Saturday and Sunday will see the last scheduled games at the Polo Grounds in Palm Springs.

Saturday's schedule: San Bernardino against Red Diamonds and Shadow Mountain against La Jolla at Shadow Mountain Stables. San Francisco against Beverly Hills at the Polo Grounds.

Sunday's schedule: Play-offs for ties at Shadow Mountain Stables, and Beverly Hills against San Bernardino at the Polo Grounds, a game postponed from the first day of the tournament.

Ted Pierce is tournament and match director of the Palm Springs Polo Association, arranged this 10-goal tournament through the cooperation of Guy Campbell, Lisle Nixon, Frank Bogert and Lloyd Phillips.

Campbell is manager of the Palm Springs Polo Grounds, under contract with the city. Nixon is manager of the Shadow Mountain Stables; Bogert and Phillips are president and vice-president, respectively, of the Palm Springs Polo Association.

Activity will start next Saturday and Sunday at 2 p. m. at both places.

TAMARISK CLUB Member-Guest tournament Sunday was won by Member Charles Resnick, left, and his guest, Bucky Harris, with a low net of 192. Elly Vines, center, Tamarisk Club pro, is making the presentation. There were 81 pairs, playing in foursomes, in the tourney.

Resnick and Harris Win at Tamarisk

Card of 192 Net in Member-Guest Tournament Wins

Tamarisk member Charles Resnick, of Palm Springs, and his guest, Bucky Harris, of Thunderbird Country Club, won the Tamarisk Member-Guest Golf Tournament of 1956 Sunday with a 54-hole net score of 192.

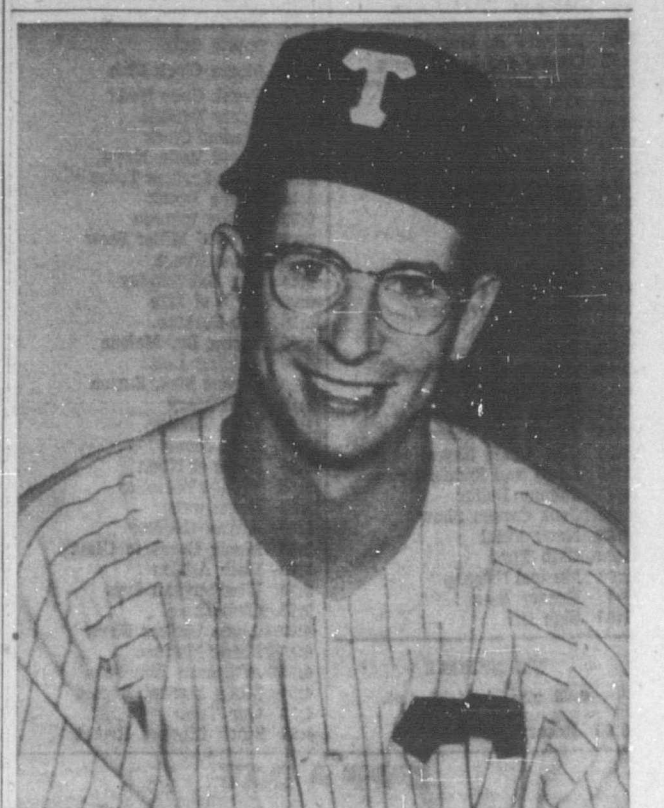

There were 81 pairs playing in foursomes, according to scorekeeper Joe Lukas.

The play was highlighted by a hole-in-one for Fred Briskin, of Hillcrest Country Club, Los Angeles, on the 205-yard fourth. Briskin's was the first ace ever shot on that three-par hole. He was the guest of member Ab Lipsey, and played in a foursome completed by Al Feldman and Al Katz.

The low gross score of 207 was tied at the end of the three-day match, and forced into a playoff. Art Anderson and George McAllister defeated Harold Hicks and Ray Funsett on the third hole of the playoff for that title.

Placing second in the best-ball net scoring, behind Resnick and Harris were member Milt Hicks and guest Fred Kellert, with 193. Member Sam Miller and guest Bob Stark shot a 194 for third low net.

Defending champions Mike Ferenz and guest Bill Carillo were fourth with 195.

NEW PADRE OUTFIELDER Richard F. Hogan joins the San Diego Club during their Spring training stint here March 12. Hogan was with Yakima last season, Tucson in 1954, batted in 149 runs, maintained a .360 batting percentage with the Arizona team. Padres will play their first game at the Polo Grounds against Seattle Rainiers March 18.

Tickets for Padres' Games Here Go on Sale Monday

A free ticket to the San Diego Padres games played in Palm Springs during their Spring training schedule will be added to each group of five tickets bought.

The tickets will go on sale Monday. According to Don Bottorff, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee handling ticket sales, the general admission tickets will sell for $1.00 each.

There will be 13 home games played at the Polo Grounds between March 16 and April 7. The first game will feature the Padres and Seattle's Rainiers.

The highlight of the season is the pair of contests between San Diego and the Cleveland Indians scheduled for March 24 and 25, arranged by Padres' general manager, Ralph Kiner.

There will be no jump in admission price for the Indians games. A system of reserved box seat and daily box seat privilege has been set up by Bottorff. For an additional 50 cents a game box seats can be reserved for the entire season. The boxes will be sectioned off behind home plate.

AAU Acts to Bar Santee Forever

NEW YORK —(AP)—Directors of all remaining indoor track meets officially were notified today by the Amateur Athletic Union that they faced permanent ineligibility if they allowed suspended Wes Santee to compete in any of their events.

Besides Bottorff, Ed Myerson, professional at the Tennis Club, will be scheduling reserved seat and general admission ticket sales. Myerson and Bottorff will work out a chart for advanced reservations on boxes, and the names of the reservers will be placed on the boxes.

Bottorff can be contacted at Weingarten and Hough, in the Plaza, and Myerson at the Tennis Club.

Aqua Lung Class at Ranch Club

A class in aqua-lung safety will start Saturday at the Ranch Club under the direction of instructor-professional Carl Schroeder.

Schroeder said children up to 18 whose parents are members of the club will learn the fundamentals of skindiving safely in weekly classes. They will start each Saturday at 9 a.m.

He said the course was created in light of injuries and fatal accidents last Summer at beaches to many youngsters who had never had training in aqua-lung safety.

Schroeder added that youngsters should test their prowess and equipment in a pool, under surveillance and after instruction, before attempting ocean skindiving.

He will accept all applications at the Ranch Club.

Last Day Rally by Littler Wins in Texas Open

Gene Littler of Thunderbird Country Club pocketed $3750 at San Antonio, Texas, last weekend, as he exhibited accurate golf in the final round of the Texas Open to come from five strokes behind to win the tournament by a two-stroke margin with a 276 total.

Littler shot a 32-33 final round, seven under par, Sunday, with seven birdies and 11 par holes. His scores for the event were 68-73-70-65—276.

Mike Fetchick, early leader, Frank Stranahan and Ernie Vossler tied for second place with 278.

Doug Ford, leader going into the final day, faded to 73 Saturday and finished fifth.

Social Outcast at Arcadia for 'Cap

ARCADIA —(AP)—Social Outcast, the pegasus of thoroughbred racing, picked up his training at Santa Anita Park today with almost no break from his routine in Florida as he prepared for Saturday's $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap. The Alfred G. Vanderbilt gelding arrived here Monday to provide a yardstick for measuring the comparative abilities of Nashua and Swaps, the two big rivals among three-year-olds last year. Nashua beat Social outcast by a head in the Widener Handicap at Hialeah last Saturday but "Old Sosh" was fairly flying at the finish.

LOS CAMPADRES riding group will police the gates at the airport each day.

Prizes to the winners of the races will be presented by cinema star Maraguerite Chapman, now living in the Village and commuting to Hollywood as little as possible to fulfill her emoting assignments.

Miss Chapman will also award the concours prizes, according to present schedule.

The meeting place of the Sport Car Club of Palm Springs is regularly at Howard Manor. Headquarters for the events of the coming weekend will be Nick Pastor's, Earle Grace hosting.

Grace Elected President of Village Sports Car Club

Earl Grace, general manager of Nick Pastor Imported Cars on North Palm Canyon Drive, was yesterday elected to the presidency of the Palm Springs Sport Car Club.

Grace replaced Del Davitt, the first president of the year old club. He takes office with 108 members under his guidance.

Through contacts in foreign and racing car circles made during his 30 years in the automobile sales and service business, Grace expects to promote a schedule of weekly activities coordinating Villagers and Winter visitors.

His momentary objective is recruiting. He has a stack of Sport Car Club entry blanks at his agency now.

FOUR OTHER DIRECTORS of the club were elected, one for the second time.

Craig Smith replaced Jack Woods as vice president.

Virginia Kidder is the club's new secretary, replacing her daughter, Carolyn.

Jan Karlyle started her second term as treasurer.

A new office, activities chairman, was created, and Spencer Rauber, owner of the Northend Shell station, was elected. Rauber will work hand in hand with Grace in scheduling the coming events.

THEY ARE PRESENTLY faced with the Concours d'Elegance, set for Saturday at El Mirador, the time trials Saturday at the airport, and the Sunday event at the airport, the 10th running of the Road Races.

To date, the only member of the local club signed up to drive in Sunday's race is Ignacio Lozano, who last December competed in a type-D Jaguar in its first appearance on the West Coast.

The concours, under the direction of chairman Art Mortimer, should include about 100 clean and beautiful cars of every description, make and model. The concours will start at noon Saturday.

Judges have not yet been announced for that event.

The races at the airport will start with morning time trials, and competition in the afternoons.

U. S. TEAM WINS NOTTINGHAM, England (AP)—Ken Purpur of Grand Forks, N. D., performed the three-goal "hat trick" Monday night in leading the U. S. Olympic hockey team to an 11-3 victory over the Nottingham Panthers.

Extra Contests at Polo Grounds Give Fans Thrill

The Red and White team game, and the Villagers and Canoga Park contest were featured as special events this weekend at the Polo Grounds after the playing of the Pacific Coast 10-goal Polo Championships.

The Reds and Whites played Saturday, Whites winning 11-8 in five chukkas. Blaine Stephenson, a member of the San Bernardino team playing for the winners, took high-scoring honors with 5 goals.

Members of the winning team were Dell Packard, Frank Bogert, C. D. Le Blanc and Stephenson.

Red team members were Pete Hufland, Charles Huthsing, Guy Campbell and Arol Campbell.

Sunday the Villagers were defeated by Canoga Park, 8-5. Team play was the basis of both scores, allowing no individual high-scoring performances.

Many of the same players at Saturday competed, but on a three-member and four-chukka basis.

The Villagers were Pete Hufland, Frank Bogert and Harold Montgomery. Canoga Park was made up of Arol Campbell, Charles Huthsing and C. D. Le Blanc.

The final weekend of the Polo Grounds seasons will wind up next Sunday with the termination of the Pacific Coast 10-goal Championship, played jointly at the Polo Grounds and Shadow Mountain Stables.

There will be extra event games at the Polo Grounds.

DiPietro with Seals SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)—Bob DiPietro, who was batting a hefty .371 with the San Francisco Seals when he broke his ankle late last season, has signed for a "substantial raise," a spokesman for the Coast League club announced today. DiPietro, a former outfielder, turned into the best hitter on the team after he switched over to first base.

Gates will open at 10:30 a.m. and the first race will be at 12:30 p.m., a half hour earlier than usual.

At least 12 are expected to start including several foreign challengers plus leading American-bred.

The hundred-grander will be a big climax to the week which features the Washington Birthday Handicap over the grass course tomorrow and several sharp overnight features the other days.

U. S. TEAM WINS NOTTINGHAM, England (AP)—Ken Purpur of Grand Forks, N. D., performed the three-goal "hat trick" Monday night in leading the U. S. Olympic hockey team to an 11-3 victory over the Nottingham Panthers.

"SONNET WRITTEN BY ILLITERATE POET"

This beautiful poem was written by my Grandpa Tooten who has a tremendous amount of literary talent for a man of 104 who can't read or write (his spelling is pretty bad too). Grandpa writes with Xs because when he was young there weren't any schools in Roane County, W. Va. and the only thing he had to study were old sugar bags and whiskey barrels. Besides being a poet Grandpa is a whiz at playing Tic Tac Toe if you don't stick him with the Os. For the past few years he's been making a living as a ghost writer for a Congressman, but last month he made up a movie script and went out to Hollywood to try and find an illiterate Movie Producer who can understand it. Shouldn't take him too long.

GOP Bloc Hunts Campaigner to Bounce Nixon Off Ticket

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The movement to bounce Vice President Richard M. Nixon off the 1956 Republican ticket has won some powerful support close to President Eisenhower.

The arguments against Nixon include: He is perhaps the most controversial figure in American national politics. He is too young—43. The vice presidency will be of unusual importance if Mr. Eisenhower seeks and gets a second term.

Democratic condemnation of his campaign tactics have hurt his position with the public. Democrats are ready to center their campaign attacks on any man "who stands a heart-beat from the presidency."

The foregoing are basic in the stop-Nixon effort. They add up to the belief, or fear, of some influential persons that Nixon would cost the national ticket votes if he were to again this year.

There is no evidence so far that Mr. Eisenhower is impressed by the arguments for dropping Nixon in 1956. On the contrary, Mr. Eisenhower's public words and acts have been enthusiastically favorable to the vice president.

Mr. Eisenhower is on record that an individual nominated for president should refuse the nomination if he were not satisfied with the party's choice for second place. There has been a boom of late in confidence that Mr. Eisenhower shortly would announce his availability for renomination.

That is what fired up the effort to displace Nixon. On the basis of information generally available, it will take a tremendous effort to supplant Nixon with another if the President runs again.

It is well known here that Mr. Eisenhower does not intend to go barnstorming this year if he does accept renomination. The campaign load will fall chiefly on the Republican vice presidential candidate.

Can Carry Load
Nixon has shown that he can carry that kind of load to Mr. Eisenhower's satisfaction, regardless of what others say about it.

All good Republicans are not good campaigners, capable of the physical and mental strain of a national campaign in a presidential year.

The stop-Nixon strategists must come up with a substitute who can perform on the stump. That is their first problem. They are thinking more, however, of a man who might suddenly succeed to the presidency.

Their second task will be to persuade Mr. Eisenhower that their man would do a better job for him than would Nixon.

It won't be easy. Mr. Eisenhower seems firmly committed. But he has been firmly committed before this on such largely personal political decisions as this one would be. And, under pressure, he has been persuaded to concede. The stop-Nixon advisers are betting they can persuade him again.

However that may be, look for the drop-Nixon effort to hit hard the moment Mr. Eisenhower announces that he will run again. It could come any time now, if it is coming at all.

Final Day of Yo-Yo Contest is Saturday

Second and final Saturday of the sixth annual Yo-Yo contest will be held this coming Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Youth Center. Trophies will be awarded for the first and second place winners, and two large Yo-Yos will be awarded for the third and fourth winners. The contest is co-sponsored by the City Recreation Department and the Youth Center.

Lays Blame for Crash-Killing 52 to Instruments

CAIRO (AP)—Two crewmen of the French airliner that crashed near here yesterday, killing 52 persons, agreed today that "something went wrong with the instruments" but withheld details pending official inquiry.

Co-pilot Robert Rolland, who was at the controls when the big DC6 slammed into the desert 11 miles west of here, and mechanic Pierre LeBoennec both said the instruments didn't seem to be working right during the plane's last moments in the air.

Rolland denied that he was attempting an emergency landing at the time of the crash, but he would give no other details. "An official inquiry will be held," he said. "That's the only time I'll be answering questions."

Rains Bring New Flood Threat to Battered Eureka

By UNITED PRESS
Rains eased over battered Northern California today, but Eureka residents were warned to be ready for possible floods.

Officials said there wasn't much chance of substantial property loss because so little had been left by the Christmas week floods.

The California storm combined with high winds, expected to reach 50 miles per hour gusts today, and heavy snows in the mountains. Snow and howling winds blocked highway 40 in the Sierra and there was 36 inches of new snow on Donner Pass, bringing the snow pack to 136 inches and 45 inches above normal.

In the lowlands, high winds unroofed airfield hangars near Fortuna, destroyed a private plane, and damaged several others.

Rains through Northern California and Western Oregon passed the two-inch point in some areas, but were freakishly inconsistent.

Elsewhere in the nation, temperatures rose 7 to 12 degrees in the Great Basin and Northern and Central Rockies, but fell as much as 25 degrees in Central Gulf States.

LONDON (AP)—The death toll in icebound Europe climbed steadily today with more cold and snow forecast for much of the continent while sudden thaws in some areas raised the new spectre of floods and avalanches.

thought to mean that Feb. 29 will be the date of the President's announcement, but this was nothing more than speculation.

Bipartisanship Split Feared from Arabian Tank Export

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials today were privately disturbed by Democratic charges that administration failure to consult Congress on the Saudi Arabian tank deal would weaken bipartisanship in foreign policy matters.

Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee Monday night accused the administration of treating the House like a "weak-minded illegitimate son" on foreign policy matters in general. He mentioned the tank deal in particular.

EARLIER, Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-NY) angrily told the Senate the tank deal "is but another illustration of the consistent policy of the administration of failing—indeed refusing—to take the public into its confidence."

The State Department declined to comment. Officials claimed that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has consistently tried to keep congressional leaders informed on foreign developments but conceded that neither Senate nor House leaders were advised about the tanks.

THE IS LIGHT U. S. tanks bound for Saudi Arabia left New York by ship Monday. The ship's departure was allowed after the government reversed its earlier order to indefinitely halt the shipment of any arms to the unsettled Middle East.

Officials feared the sharp congressional reaction to the tank deal might result in a stiffening attitude to administration foreign policy proposals.

Rabbi Rosenberg Addresses Kiwanians

Rabbi Leon Rosenberg of the Palm Springs Jewish Community Center, was the speaker at the Kiwanis Club meeting at Saddle and Sirloin this noon.

He reported on the status of World Brotherhood 10 years after World War II, using as the basis of his talk the trip he made last Summer with the National Conference of Christians and Jews to 16 countries of Europe and the Near East.

NEW MONTCLAIR PHAETON 4-DOOR HARDTOP—Newest, most beautiful 4-door hardtop of them all. No center pillars, of course. But more important, no view-cramping curve to the roof. Rear-seat passengers enjoy full visibility. Dramatic styling touches distinguish the Phaeton from all other 4-door hardtops.

Here's why so many small car owners are moving up to the Big M!

1. PROVABLE VALUE

You get far more car for your money. Big-car size, weight, and power. Big-car luxury and prestige. Remember, too, that Mercury's low starting price, low operating cost and consistently high resale value make Mercury the top value in its field.

3. LOW COST

Prices start low for the BIG M. For example, the Mercury Medalist is priced below many models in the "low-price 3."* And you have a wide choice of body styles in Mercury's newest, lowest-priced Medalist series.

5. SAFETY-FIRST DESIGN

There's a whole new family of safety advances. For example, at no extra cost, you get an impact-absorbing safety steering wheel and triple-strength door locks. And, as options, there are seat belts, a padded instrument panel, even padded sun visors.

2. REFLEX-ACTION PERFORMANCE

You not only get high horsepower in THE BIG M, you get a car with the reflexes of a champion athlete. Go, stop, climb, pass—THE BIG M responds instantly to your every command. And on rough roads and curves—THE BIG M adjusts instantly for your ease and comfort.

4. BIG M BEAUTY

Mercury has a look of distinction all its own. You see it in the sleek, road-hugging profile. In the fresh, youthful lines. In the sparkling new colors—rich, deep-luster solid-tones, radiant two-tones, and dramatic new Flo-Tone color styling.
